

Government Advertisement: 'Let's look out for Australia' Anti-terrorism Campaign

Television Advertisement One, Phase One, 2002

"Terrorism has changed the world, and Australia is not immune.

But the way of life that we value so highly must go on.

Australians are friendly, decent, democratic people, and we're going to stay that way.

Our security agencies have been upgraded, and are ready to detect, prevent, and respond to terrorism.

All of us can play a part by keeping an eye out for anything suspicious.

Over the coming weeks the Commonwealth government will be providing you with more information on how we can work together to protect our way of life.

Be alert, but not alarmed.

Together, let's look out for Australia.

If you see something suspicious, call 1800 123 400

Authorised by the Commonwealth Government, Canberra."
