

Government Advertisement: 'Let's look out for Australia' Anti-Terrorism Campaign

Television Advertisement One, Phase Two, 2003

Australians need to work together to protect our way of life from the threat of terrorism.

Every home is being sent this booklet, so we can all be informed and play a part.

It has examples of the sorts of things to be alert for, where to report suspicious activity, details of new national security measures, advice from leading Australian counter-terrorism experts and guidance about what to do in emergencies.

It comes with an emergency contacts card, with space to record important local numbers.

The booklet will also be available in a range of languages.

Please look out for it, and take the time to read it.

Together, let's look out for Australia.
